TOP (Winner): Xander Raith, a 17-year-old from Nantucket, MA, was visiting Mt. Hood on a snowboarding trip and by chance stopped at the HR slider park. With solid wind, he rigged his 12 and nailed this switch melon off the Slingshot kicker with no one else in the water. Photo Chad Otterstrom // MIDDLE: Every year Martyn Bone and friends travel to this island five miles off the coast of Edithburgh in South Australia. The island is on a massive sandbar so you can't get there with any wind direction
